

The reason I subscribe to satellite radio is because I hate what became of my local radio stations-- the same old songs were played again and again. Satellite radio offers me a choice of programming, there's news, talk, and more importantly, a variety of music.

Satellite radio makes listening to the radio fun again.

Leave satellite radio alone!

If you feel you have to make a difference, improve commercial radio!